

KEEP TALKING

The weekend doesn't have to end. Keep Talking with this week's guide.

The Story | A King To Follow

Carl Johnston

Jesus came to interact with his people like no other king.

Discussion Questions

- Name some people in your life who best represent these three words: available, accessible, and approachable. What makes you say that about them?
- Read Luke 2:8-14 aloud. What key words stand out to you? What are some things about the birth of Jesus that foreshadowed the type of king he is?
- Read Isaiah 9:6 aloud, where the prophet points to someone coming who will hold the government on his shoulders. He describes this person as:
 - Wonderful Counsellor
 - Mighty God
 - Everlasting Father
 - Prince of Peace
- Is there a time when you've experienced God as one or more of these? What was going on in your life that caused one of these descriptions to surface?
- As King, Jesus made himself available, accessible, and approachable. In what ways could you better reflect those characteristics to the people around you?
